

(1) THE LINE OF SUCCESSION FROM KABIR TO KIRPAL SINGH

From Kabir to Kirpal Singh, the Masters of the Divine Science of Light and Sound appear and manifest themselves as an uninterrupted line, through which they transmitted to each successor the one knowledge and the one Power. Subsequently we can trace an exact "family tree" from Kabir (1398-1518) to Guru Nanak (1469-1539), and to the nine Gurus of the Sikhs: Angad (1504-1552), Amar Das (1479-1574), Ram Das (1534-1581), Arjan (1563-1606), Har Gobind (1595-1644), Har Rai (1630-1661), Har Krishan (1656-1664), Teg Bahadur (1621-1675) and Gobind Singh (1667-1708). Then Ratnagar Rao of Poona (about 1690-1780), Tulsi Sahib (1763-1843), Soami Ji (1818-1870), Jaimal Singh (1838-1903) who brought back the Science in Punjab - where the ten Sikh Gurus operated - and instructed Hazur Sawan Singh (1858-1948), the Master of Sant Kirpal Singh (1894-1974).
